

Department of English celebrated Vandana Shiva's Birth Anniversary

Under “Commemorating the Writer Series”, the Department of English celebrated the birth anniversary of well known writer, Vandana Shiva on 11th November, 2022 at 2pm. Ms. Tania Shri, research scholar of department who has coordinated the event, inaugurated the session with a welcome address and briefed the audience regarding the various activities of the event. The event commenced with the powerpoint presentation by Ms. Tania Shri which focused on the activism, works and thematic concerns of Vandana Shiva's writings followed by another powerpoint presentation by Kamaljot Kour regarding Shiva's ecofeminist philosophy. A virtual recorded interview was shown to the students of 1st and 3rd semester. Students of 3rd semester also participated in the event enthusiastically and their contributions are as under:

- Dipshi Pathania- speech enactment of Vandana Shiva's excerpt from her memoir Terra Viva: My Life in a Biodiversity of Movements (2022).
- Safia Siddique- organized. an engaging quiz on Vandana Shiva

Head of the Department, Dr. Vandana Sharma also shared her insights about Vandana Shiva's activism and philosophy. The event was attended by Professors, scholars and students of the Department and ended with the valuable feedback from the professors.

Commemorating the Writer Series

