TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We are pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Fareeda Zaman, who successfully completed her one-month internship with TARA Tots - ONYVA

During her time with us, Ms. Fareeda actively contributed to various child-centered activities with remarkable enthusiasm, creativity, and dedication. She demonstrated a genuine passion for working with children and consistently upheld a sensitive, responsible, and engaging approach throughout her internship.

Her key responsibilities included:

- Conducting sessions on Behaviour and Discipline
- Leading a child rights and duties session with 2 to 6-year-old children
- Facilitating storytelling sessions and activity-based learning with children
- Supporting hands-on learning through activities such as dal sorting, sand play, and building bricks games
- Assisting tutors in daily routines, including dictation and classroom support
- Organizing and conducting a game-based activity focused on colour identification with children

Ms. Fareeda consistently showed strong communication skills, patience, and the ability to adapt her methods to suit young learners. Her approach was both creative and child-friendly, making her sessions both educational and enjoyable for the children.

She has been a valuable part of our team, and I have no doubt she will bring the same commitment and compassion to any future opportunity she chooses to pursue.

We wholeheartedly recommend Ms. Fareeda Zaman for any academic or professional role involving children, education, or development work.

INTERNSHIP CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Ms. Kiran Jain, a 4th semester student of M.A. Social Work with Enrollment No. 23MSOW10 at Central University of Jammu, has successfully completed her 208 Hours of internship with THE - SARA under Mission Compassion during the period from 1st June 2025 to 30th June 2025.

As part of her internship, she conducted a comprehensive field study on:
"Menstrual Health and Hygiene Status of Women Industrial Workers In Jammu."

Her work involved:

1. Designing and conducting structured interviews and surveys among women industrial workers.
2. Gathering first-hand data from Industrial Units in Bari Brahmana, Birpur and Gangyal Industrial Estates in Jammu.
3. Identifying key gaps in awareness, access to menstrual products, workplace sanitation, and socio-cultural barriers.
4. Preparing a well-documented report with recommendations for improving menstrual hygiene management among working women.
5. Identifying and conducting distribution of sanitary pads among the deserving women industrial workers.

Throughout the internship, Ms. Kiran Jain exhibited commendable professionalism, sensitivity while handling personal and cultural issues, and a genuine passion for women's health and rights. Her contribution will help guide our future outreach and awareness programs targeting marginalized female workers. She also rendered her services towards Project C.A.R.E an initiative by THE - SARA to support victims of cross-border shelling in Poonch (J&K) by providing back-end support to the organization.

We appreciate her dedication, field discipline, and the quality of her research and engagement with the community. She has been an asset to our mission and team.

We wish her continued success in all her academic and professional endeavors.
