- monitor the timely submission of reports by the ICC/UCC;

- prepare an annual status report with details on the number of cases filed and their disposals and submit the same to the Commission.

Supportive Measures-(1) The rules, regulations or any such other instrument by which ICC/UCC shall function have to be updated or revised from time-to-time, as court judgment and other laws and rules will continue to revise the legal framework within which the Act is to be implemented.

(2) The executive authority of Central University of Jammu shall mandatorily extend full support to see that the recommendations of the ICC/UCC are implemented in timely manner. As possible institutional resources must be given to the functioning of the ICC/UCC, including office and building infrastructure (computers, photocopiers, audio video equipments, etc.), staff (typists, counseling and legal services) as well a sufficient of financial resources.

(3) Vulnerable groups are particularly prone to harassment and also find it more difficult to complain. Vulnerability can be socially compounded by region, class, caste, sexual orientation, minority identity and by being differently abled. Enabling committees shall be sensitive to such vulnerabilities and special needs.

(4) Since research students and doctoral candidates are particularly vulnerable Central University of Jammu shall ensure that the guidelines for ethics for Research Supervision are put in place.

(5) Central University of Jammu shall conduct a regular and half yearly review of the efficacy and implementation of their anti-sexual harassment policy

(6) All Academic Staff Colleges (now known as Human Resource Development Centres (HRDCs) and Regional Centres for Capacity Building (RCCBs) shall incorporate sessions on gender in their orientation and refresher courses. This should be across disciplines, and preferably mainstreamed using the UGC SAKSHAM Report which provides indicative modules in this regard.

(7) Orientation courses for administrators conducted in CUJ must have a module on gender sensitization and sexual harassment issues. Regular workshops are to be conducted for all sections of the CUJ community.

(8) Counseling services shall be institutionalized in CUJ and must have well trained full-time counselors.

(9) CUJ shall have adequate lighting as a necessary aspect of infrastructure and maintenance.

(10) Adequate and well trained security including a good proportion or balance of women security staff is necessary. Security staff must receive gender sensitization training as a part of conditions of appointment.

(11) CUJ shall ensure reliable public transport, especially with in large campuses between different sections of the CUJ hostels, libraries, laboratories and main buildings, and especially those that do not have good access for day scholars. Lack of safety as well as harassment is exacerbated when employees and students cannot depend on safe public transport. Reliable transport may be considered by CUJ to enable employees and students to work late in libraries, laboratories and to attend programmes in the evenings.

(12) CUJ shall accord priority to construction of women's hostels. For the growing population of young women wishing to access higher education, hostel accommodation is desirable in both urban and rural areas and at all levels of higher education which provides a modicum of protection from harassment of all kinds.

(13) Concern for the safety of women students, male/TG must not be cited to impose discriminatory rules for all in the hostels as compared to male students. Campus safety policies should not result in securitization, such as over monitoring or policing or curtailing the freedom of movement, especially for women employees and students including all gender.

(14) Adequate health facilities are equally mandatory for all HEIs. CUJ shall specially take care of women and medical facility shall be given to all genders.

(15) The Women's Development Cells in colleges shall be revived and funded to be able to carry out the range of activities required for gender sensitization and remain autonomous of the functioning of antisexual harassment committees and ICCs/UCCs. At the same time they shall extend their activities to include gender sensitization programmes in consultation with ICCs /UCCs and help to disseminate anti sexual harassment policies on campuses on a regular basis. The 'cultural' space and the 'formal academic space' need to collaborate to render these workshops innovative, engaging and non-mechanical.

(16) Hostel Wardens, Provosts, Principals, Vice Chancellors, Legal Officers and other functionaries are within the domain of accountability through amendments in the rules or Ordinances where necessary.
